Flamenco's roots in the Polígono Sur

A new and different tour in which the most important thing is not what you will see but what you will experience

If you want an adventure, you want to experience part of Sevilla's living and you like flamenco you cannot leave without visiting the wellknown area "Las tres mil".

A simple area with lot of charm with home grown talented people like: La Tana, Juana la del Revuelo, Raimundo Amador, Carlos Heredia... etc

Flamenco is Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO

Itinerary

(3 hours aprox.)

Arrival and depart at Puerta de Jerez: on the way to the "Poligono Sur" you will be able to hear the history of "las tres mil viviendas" (20 min. aprox.)

Gipsy culture: gipsy woman from association "Akherdi i Tromipen" will welcome us at
